The greatest soap sale in the whole history of Wheeling begins here Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. CAPITOL BUILDING AT WASHINGTON,

After which time it can be procured from such as choose to handle it. IT IS SO CHEAP THAT IT CAN BE NO CHEAPER, AND SO GOOD THAT IT CAN BE NO BETTER. It has had a phenomenal sale in all the large cities, and we predict the same for it here. Firecracker Thieves.

George Gates and John Beneno, were two boys arrested by Lieutenant Clemens yesterday morning, for burglarizing Zevely's store, corner of Sixteenth and Chapline streets. They were after fire-crackers, and had made the second trip. Lawyer R. Ryan, who occupies adjoining quarters, heard the youthful burglars and notified the police. There was another boy arrested, but as he was innocent, he was let go. They were taken before Squire Rogers, who committed them to jail for their hearing before him this morning. Beneno is an Italian.

Mad Dog Killed.

A mad dog was shot in Alley C, Second ward, yesterday at noon, by Officer Walker. The dog had previously been pounded into insensibility by a club, wielded by a boy, and a bullet from the officer's revolver, put its light out. The shooting attracted a large crowd, and considerable excitement was caused when it was learned that the dog had bitten other dogs. Captain Bennett intends to kill all the dogs bitten that can be discovered, as it is certain that the canine was mad.

No persons were bitten, though the dog ran around snapping right and left. The intense heat may have been a cause of the dog's going mad.

ADESPERATE FIGHT

Occurred Down at Boggs' Run Last Night

BETWEEN TWO PICNIC PARTIES.

A Benwood Wagon Party Came in Contact with a Crowd of Hungarians, and Ed Pearl and George Earnest Were Badly Cut—The Former was also Shot, and His Recovery is Considered Doubtful.

A serious fight occurred at Boggs' Run last night about 10 o'clock between a crowd of Benwood people returning from an outing and a crowd of Hungarians. As a result Ed Pearl was, it is feared, fatally wounded, and George Earnest was badly slashed with a knife. Pearl was taken to Dr. H. T. Ford's office in the Eighth ward. He was able only to speak at intervals, and it was seen that his condition was critical. He was shot in the shoulder, but his more serious injury was in the abdomen, and his bowels were almost ripped open. The city ambulance removed him to the City hospital, where he was attended to by Drs. Hupp and Ford. An operation was deemed expedient, and at a late hour there were slight chances of his recovery.

Earnest was cut about the arm and shoulder, and was removed to the office of Dr. T. H. Melghen, South Jacob street, where his cuts were dressed. His injuries are not serious. Earnest was formerly a street car motorman, but severed his connection with the street car company during the strike a few years ago. Pearl is a Benwood steel worker.

From what could be learned it appears that the wagon party contained about a half a dozen occupants. As they drove along near the Boggs' Run crossing, it is said, one of them yelled to the crowd of Hungarians standing on the road: "Get out of the road, or we'll run over you!"

The Hungarians didn't move with much alacrity, and the men in the wagon had to defend themselves a moment later. In the scrimmage that followed, the foreigners drew knives and revolvers, using them with the effect noted. No arrests have been made yet. There is the usual difficulty in ascertaining the names of the foreigners. They are residents of Boggs' Run and are in the hands of the Marshall county officials. The Benwood police have the affair in charge and arrests will likely be made some time to-day.

At 3 o'clock this morning, Pearl was still living, but his life is despaired of.

The wound gave evidence that the weapon used was a knife with a remarkably long blade, as an ordinary penknife would not do the damage. One gash extended from the ribs to the lower part of the abdomen, and when Pearl reached assistance, his bowels were protruding.

Both Earnest and Pearl are respected mill men.

TIN MILLS RESUME.

The Scale Signed at the Laughlin, and Work Resumes To-day—The Aetna-Standard.

Owing to the rush of orders the Laughlin Tin Plate Works, in Martin's Ferry, will resume on Wednesday, July 6, if everything can be gotten in readiness by that time. The foundation of the hot rolls engine is being put in first class order and other needed repairs are being made and all of these will be rushed forward as vigorously as possible. It seems almost impossible to get everything ready by Wednesday, but this will be done if possible. The works will certainly be on by Monday. The cold rolls have not yet shut down.

The activity in the repairs at the Laughlin indicate that the shut down would be very brief if the scale was signed and this having been done on Saturday everything is settled and this means much work and more business. It was understood that the management would like to have resumed to-day if possible. Many of the employees have gone away to spend their vacation and others who wanted to go hesitated about it, because they believed the stop would be very brief. It is thought that about all will be back in time for the start.

Just when the tin mills at the Aetna-Standard will go on is not known positively, but they will resume, just as quickly as possible, probably this week. The indications at the Aetna-Standard, like the Laughlin, pointed to a very brief shut down and many of the tin mill employees have not gone away on this account.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The barber shops will close to-day at noon.

The Central glass house will shut down about the middle of next week, and will be off for four weeks.

Judging by the amount of noise with which the day was ushered in this will be a memorable Fourth in Wheeling. From midnight the roar of crackers and other noise-producers was incessant.

At a meeting of the miners of the Wheeling creek mines at Bridgeport, yesterday, the proposition to go on strike was voted down by a majority of nearly two to one and they will continue at work.

In Saturday's horse race on the Fair ground track between the horses of Messrs. Statler, McClure, Reifer and McLaughlin, it was won in three successive heats by Statler's bay mare, Annie M., the third heat being made in 2:18½.

The heat drove many people to the river front last night, and they were repaid for their trouble, as it is much cooler there. Bathing was indulged in to a great extent at the wharf landing, and Riverside park was the resort of others.

To-morrow evening, at Trades Assembly hall, Mr. A. C. Cattermull, of Chicago, chairman of the executive board of the carpenter's brotherhood, will deliver an address on labor. The meeting is public, and is under the auspices of the local carpenter's union.

This afternoon, from his late residence, near Mount Park, occurs the funeral of Alexander T. Frazier, who died Saturday morning, after an illness extending over several months. An operation was performed for his complaint some time ago, and death was unexpected. Mr. Frazier was universally respected. The interment is at Mt. Olivet cemetery.
